

Small businesses rely on Net Neutrality to get their message to potential customers. Please do not destroy my small businesses by letting mega-communications companies determine what people can and cannot view easily on the internet. The internet belongs to the PEOPLE – not big business! Thank you.